Based on its remarkable nutritional profile, amalaki could've been mixed with standard fruit juices and still become a best-seller. But after referring to ancient Ayurvedic formulations and modern scientific research, our world-class team of Western medical doctors, Ayurvedic physicians and scholars, and chemistry and nutrition PhDs decided to create a formulation unlike any other product on the market—a combination of select herbs and fruits that completely unlocks the potency of amalaki.

The result of their hard work? A breakthrough formulation that puts this product in a class of its own. It is a highly unique, completely synergistic blend that offers nutritional benefits only possible with such a perfect mix of a variety of powerful whole foods. It is no one-fruit wonder or everything-and-the-kitchen-sink drink. It is the combination of solid research and thousands of years of history, providing you with one-of-a-kind nutritional benefits.

Amalaki, the great rejuvenator. Central to Zrii is a small fruit that grows at the base of the pristine Himalayas in northern India. Its nutritional profile truly places it in a class of its own-which means it can be an extraordinary source for you to find rejuvenation, vitality, and energy.

A formulation that takes nutrition to the next level. Mixed only with fruit juices, amalaki would be a top nutritional drink. But that wasn't enough to ensure that you received the highest level of nutrition possible, so we created a synergistic blend of herbs and fruits to completely unlock the potency of amalaki.

Preservative-free. Zrii uses the world's purest whole-food source of amalaki, all grown at the foot of the Himalayas, surrounded by the cleanest air and water on the planet-which means no harmful artificial chemicals or contaminants.

Wildcrafted in the Himalayas. Our amalaki is wildcrafted, a harvesting technique where the fruit is taken from trees as it is naturally found in nature, hand-picked according to ancient techniques.

Endorsed by the Chopra Center. Zrii is proudly endorsed by the Chopra Center for Wellbeing, founded by world-famous Dr. Deepak Chopra and neurologist Dr. David Simon-the first third-party provider the Chopra Center has ever endorsed.

A vibrant taste. In Ayurvedic practice, the ability of a food or drink to "enliven the tongue" is a hallmark of its healing capabilities. And as those who've tried it will tell you, Zrii most assuredly enlivens the tongue.
