

Starry Night
By Karissa F.
2000 - 2002??

One night, a girl named Kichi, was laying in her bed. Her mom had just tucked her in for the night. She looked out her window and saw so many beautiful stars.

Even though there were lots of stars, Kichi made a wish. She wished that she could see a real angel. She went to sleep thinking of her wish she had made.

The next morning she woke up and was very excited. In her dreams, she had met a real angel. She knew she would probably see her again tonight.

She ran downstairs and told her mom all about the wish she had made and that it came true. Her mom was very excited. She knew how much Kichi wanted to meet a real angel. Kichi ate breakfast ,got dressed, and brushed her teeth.

Kichi played and played all day. She went on a walk with her German Shepard puppy, Rascal. She loved going outside and playing.

Soon, it was time for lunch. Kichi had a picnic outside on the lawn.

After that, they had to go to the store and get some things. When they were at the store, Kichi got Rascal some puppy treats. When they got back home, Kichi wanted to give Rascal one of the treats. She gave her one and then she played outside on the swing set.

Soon, it was time for dinner. Kichi went inside, gave Rascal some food, and then washed up.

After dinner, Kichi went upstairs took a bath, got her pajamas on and brushed her teeth.

When she looked in the mirror, she saw something that looked like an angel. She finished brushing her teeth, and looked behind her. She saw nothing.

Kichi went into her room, said her prayer and crawled into bed. Her mom tucked her in and went to bed.

As Kichi was laying in bed, she saw a real angel. Kichi was so excited. The angel sat down on Kichi's bed. Kichi softly said, " Hello. I'm Kichi. What is your name?" The angel said, "Sarah." Kichi was so happy to finally meet a real angel. She said good night to Sarah and went to sleep.

The next morning Kichi woke up, said good morning to Sarah, got dressed and Kichi and Sarah went downstairs. Kichi let Rascal out of her cage, put her outside, and ran over to her mom. "Hi, Mom! This is Sarah. She is the angel I met last night." Her mom couldn't see Sarah but just said, "Good Morning, Sarah."

Kichi let Rascal in, told her good morning, fed her, and washed up. They all sat down for breakfast. Sarah didn't eat. She just sat down at the table. After breakfast, Kichi helped her mom and dad clean up and then went upstairs and brushed her teeth. She put Rascal on a leash and then Kichi's mom, Kichi's dad, Kichi, Rascal and Sarah went for a walk.

When they came home, Kichi gave Rascal a treat and Kichi, Rascal, and Sarah went up to Kichi's room.

They all played and played all day and only took a break for lunch.

After dinner that night, Kichi put Rascal outside, and Kichi and Sarah went upstairs and Kichi got her pajamas on, brushed her teeth, went back downstairs, fed Rascal and put her in bed.

Kichi and Sarah went upstairs and went to bed. After Kichi's mom tucked her in, Kichi said to Sarah, "Thank you for being my friend. Good Night."

Sarah just said, "Good Night, Kichi."

From that night on, Sarah was always right beside Kichi. Kichi was so happy.

So remember, If the sky is full of stars, you can make a wish and your wish just might come true.